Coverage A: Dwelling

We cover the dwelling on the residence premises shown in the Declarations, including attached structures, against direct physical loss, subject to the exclusions and conditions of this policy.

Coverage B: Other Structures

We cover structures set apart from the dwelling by clear space, such as detached garages, fences, and sheds, against direct physical loss.

We cover personal property owned or used by an insured while it is anywhere in the world. Property usually located at an insured's residence, other than the residence premises, is limited to 10 percent of the Coverage C limit.

Coverage D: Loss of Use

If a covered loss makes the residence premises unfit to live in, we pay reasonable additional living expenses for the period needed to restore the home, up to 12 months.

Section III: Liability Coverage

Coverage E: Personal Liability

If an insured becomes legally obligated to pay damages because of bodily injury or property damage caused by an occurrence, we will pay those damages up to the limit shown and will provide a defense at our expense.

Coverage F: Medical Payments to Others

We will pay reasonable medical expenses incurred by another person within three years of an accident causing bodily injury on the insured location, regardless of fault, up to the limit shown.

- Aircraft and vehicle damage
- Smoke

3. Prepare an inventory of damaged personal property.
4. Submit a signed, sworn proof of loss within 60 days of our request.

Covered losses to the dwelling are settled at replacement cost, without deduction for depreciation, once repairs are complete. Until then, we pay the actual cash value of the loss.

Any loss payment under Coverage A will be paid to the Named Insured and the mortgagee shown in the Declarations, as their interests may appear.

After we pay a loss, we are entitled to recover that amount from any responsible third party. The insured must sign and deliver any documents needed to secure that right.
